

German as a Foreign Language

Target level A1.1 (virtual mobility)

Winter Semester 2025/2026

Dear students at our partner universities,
Dear Eminent students,
Dear (future) staff,

A warm welcome to the University of Siegen and the Language Center. As part of the virtual mobility program at the University of Siegen, the Language Center offers a beginner course in German as a foreign language (DaF) which can be attended online.

German as a Foreign Language - Target level A1.1 (virtual mobility)

Prepare for your studies at the University of Siegen, or for working or studying in Germany, by taking your first step in the German language.

Please note: This course is designed for participants without prior knowledge of German.

Course times: October 22st, 2025, until February 11th, 2026

Weekly via webex every Wednesday from 6:15 pm to 8:30 pm (3 units of 45 minutes) plus 1 asynchronous unit (concept of flipped classroom)

Course requirements: The tasks for the asynchronous unit must be completed. We expect you to study at home and to do the „classical homework tasks“. Regular attendance in the weekly webex sessions is mandatory, a maximum absence of 2 meetings (270 minutes) is tolerated. The syllabus will be shared in the first session.

Certificate of attendance: 6 credit points (ECTS) are possible.

Registration:

For virtual Erasmus: until 15.09.2025 via the website of the International Office: <https://u-si.de/2c4Rx>

For EMINENT students and for University of Siegen staff (doctoral students, postdocs, academic and non-academic staff):
by e-mail to daf@spz.uni-siegen.de

The Language Center courses are free of charge for students. Follow us on Instagram or visit our homepage.
